Case No. 2:12-cv-536-GMN-VCF

ORDER

MOTION TO UNSEAL (#785)

MOTION TO UNSEAL (#790)

MOTION FOR LEAVE TO SEAL (#800)

Three motions are before the court: (1) the Federal Trade Commission's Motion to Unseal documents related to the Commission's Motion for a Preliminary Injunction (#785); (2) the Commission's Motion to Unseal documents related to the Commission's Motion to Compel (#790); and (3) the Tucker Defendants' Motion for Leave to Seal documents related to their opposition to the Commission's Motion for a Preliminary Injunction (#800).

First, the Commission moves to unseal documents related to the Commission's Motion for a Preliminary Injunction. These filings are docketed as documents #780, #781, and #782. Each has attached exhibits. Here, the Commission moves to "unseal the FTC's motion for preliminary injunction filings, with further redactions to Exhibits 2, 10, 22, 59, 60, 61, 63, and 101." The parties agree that one filing, Exhibit 102, which is docketed as #781-108, should remain sealed. The court agrees. The Commission's motion is granted.

Second, the Commission moves to unseal documents related to its Motion to Compel. This motion is unopposed and the time to oppose has expired. Therefore, the motion is granted. See LR 7-2(d).

1 Third, the Tucker Defendants move to seal documents related their opposition to the Commission's
2 Motion for a Preliminary Injunction. The Tucker Defendants ask the court to seal page 9 of Exhibit 9. The 3 court has already granted this relief. See (Doc. #805).
